

BOARD CHARTER

1 OVERVIEW

- 1.1 Felix Gold Limited ACN 645 790 281 (Company) is a public company admitted to the official list of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX).
- (a) The board of directors (Board) is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company and its controlled entities and to ensure the creation and protection of shareholder value.
 - (b) The purpose of this charter is to:
 - (i) promote high standards of corporate governance;
 - (ii) clarify the role and responsibilities of the Board; and
 - (iii) enable the Board to provide strategic guidance for the Company and effective oversight of the management of the Company.
 - (c) To the extent that there is inconsistency between this charter and the Company's constitution, the constitution will prevail to the extent of that inconsistency.

2 COMPLIANCE AND GOVERNING MATERIALS

2.1 Constitution

The Company's Constitution is the Company's key governance document. The Board must ensure that it and the Company comply with the provisions of the Constitution at all times.

2.2 Compliance with Laws

- (a) As a public company seeking approval to list on ASX, the Company must comply with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Act), the ASX Listing Rules (Listing Rules) as well as all other applicable laws and regulations. Examples of applicable areas of regulation include:
 - (i) environmental protection legislation;
 - (ii) occupational health & safety legislation;
 - (iii) employment related laws; and
 - (iv) anti-discrimination legislation.

3 BOARD COMPOSITION

3.1 Number of Directors

In accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Constitution, the Board must at all times comprise of at least three directors.

3.2 Independence

- (a) The Board will comprise a majority of non-executive directors.
- (b) The Board will determine on appointment and as necessary if a director is independent and free from extraneous influences that could materially interfere with judgement.

- (c) To reach a conclusion about each director's status, the Board will consider the particular circumstances, attributes, interest and relationships of each director and will have regard to the criteria contained in the ASX guidelines as being relevant indicators of independence (or lack of it).

3.3 Appointment and Removal of Directors

- (a) Directors will be appointed and removed in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Constitution.
- (b) Executive directors must resign from the Board when they cease to occupy their executive role within the Company.
- (c) In selecting new directors, the Board must ensure that the candidate has the appropriate range of skills, experience and expertise that will best complement Board effectiveness. Further, checks should be conducted regarding the potential new director's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history.
- (d) In addition, any candidate must provide details of any other material directorships currently held and confirm that they have the necessary time to devote to their position.
- (e) In the case of a candidate standing for election as a director for the first time, the candidate must:
 - (i) disclose the details of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the entity and its security holders generally; and
 - (ii) if the Board considers that the candidate will, if elected, qualify as an independent director, provide a statement to that effect.

3.4 Nomination and Rotation of Directors

Nomination and rotation of directors will be governed by the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the Listing Rules and the Constitution.

Upon appointment, each director and Senior Executive will be provided with a written agreement setting out the key terms of his or her employment.

15.2 Induction Program

New Directors of the Company will be provided with an informal induction program following their appointment to assist them in becoming familiar with the Company, its policies, including the Board Charter and business objectives.

15.3 Ongoing Information

The Chair, Managing Director, Company Secretary and any other Senior Executives must ensure that updated information is provided to the Board in a timely fashion to enable the directors to effectively discharge their duties.

15.4 Requested Information

- (a) Directors are entitled to request and receive such additional information as they consider necessary to support informed decision-making.
- (b) In discharging its role, the Board shall have unrestricted access to:
 - (i) all books and records of the Company;
 - (ii) all staff, including the Company's managers to seek information;
 - (iii) explanations from them;
 - (iv) the Company's auditors, both internal and external, to seek explanations; and
 - (v) information from them without Management being present.

15.5 Independent Advice

- (a) Subject to obtaining the Chair's consent, a director of the Company is entitled to seek independent professional advice (including but not limited to legal, financial or accounting advice) at the Company's expense on any matter connected with the discharge of his or her responsibilities.
- (b) The Chair must not unreasonably withhold or delay consent.
- (c) The Chair may determine that any advice received by an individual director will be circulated to the remainder of the Board.
- (d) The right to advice does not extend to advice concerning matters of a personal or private nature, including for example, matters relating to the director's contract of employment with the Company (in the case of an executive director) or any dispute between the director and the Company.
- (e) All directors are entitled to the benefit of the Company's standard Deed of Access, Indemnity and Insurance, which provides ongoing access to Board papers and, at the Company's expense, directors and officers insurance.

16 DIRECTOR SHARE TRADING

The Company's Securities Trading Policy imposes restrictions on the trading of financial products by directors and others persons in possession of undisclosed price sensitive information. All directors must follow that policy.

17 CONFLICTS

- (a) Directors are required to act in a manner which is consistent with the best interests of the Company as a whole, free of any actual or possible conflicts of interest.
- (b) Directors must:
 - (i) disclose to the Board any actual or potential conflict of interest or duty, or matter that might reasonably be thought to exist as soon as the situation arises;
 - (ii) take all necessary and reasonable action to resolve or avoid any actual or potential conflict of interest or duty; and
 - (iii) comply with all applicable law and the Constitution in relation to disclosing material personal interests and restrictions on voting.
- (c) If a conflict exists, it is expected that any director to whom the conflict relates will leave the room when the Board is discussing any matter to which the conflict relates.
- (d) Directors are expected to inform the Chair of any proposed appointment to the board or executive of another company as soon as practicable.
- (e) No director will participate in the determination of their own remuneration.
- (f) No director will participate in the review of their own performance.
- (g) No director will be present for discussions at a Board meeting on, or vote on a matter regarding, his or her election, re-election, or removal.

18 ANNUAL REVIEW

- (a) At the end of each annual reporting period, the Board will:
 - (i) conduct a self-evaluation of its performance against this Charter;
 - (ii) review this Charter and recommend any changes or improvements if necessary; and
 - (iii) disclose in the Company's annual report:
 - (A) the details and results of any performance evaluations that were undertaken by the Board during the period, including:
 - (1) any insights gained from those evaluations; and
 - (2) any resulting governance changes that will be implemented;
 - (B) the length of service of each director;
 - (C) the names of the directors considered by the Board to be independent directors; and

- (D) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of a type which might be perceived as impacting upon their independence, but the Board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director:
- (1) the nature of the interest position association or relationship in question; and
 - (2) an explanation of why the Board is of that opinion.

(b) This Charter may be amended from time to time by resolution of the Board.

19 PUBLICATION OF THE CHARTER

This Charter is published on the Company's website www.felixgold.com.au.
